COUNCIL WELCOMES DOVE OF PEACE

Harmony Restored Between Warring Factions in Lower Board.

LEADBEATER ELECTED

Is Unanimous Choice of Members to Succeed C. R. Yates From First Ward—Concerted Action.

Most of the business which came before Council last night originated in the Board of Aldermen. The papers submitted were of a general nature and they were appropriately disposed of. There was virtually no discussion.

Towards the close of the session Mr. Field, chairman of the finance committee, made the following statement:

When I presented the resolution from the Finance Committee, asking for authority to borrow $40,000, to cover fixed and estimated expenses for balance of present fiscal year. I read from data which showed that the receipts of the General Fund from all sources to January 1, 1913, amounted to $134,200, and there had been paid out ,as shown by warrants of the city, $142,200, or an overdraft on that fund of $8,000.

The City Treasury was not entirely out of funds ,because, the amount to the credit of the Gas Fund, offset this seeming shortage. The figures had been carefully examined by the finance committee, and were also submitted to the bank official, who, as the representative of his bank, has always kindly assisted us in any financial problems.

In estimating the amount we might need to carry us to the end of the fiscal year, we took the receipts to January 1, 1913, as stated $134,200, to which we added what we hoped to receive from the gas works, taxes, fines, etc., during the next five months or $24,400, making total receipts for the year $158,600 ,or with $40,000 added $198,600.

As stated, the warrant account to January 1, 1913 ,amounted to $142,200, to which I added $50,400, which is made up from what is termed fixed charges, estimated in some cases, exact in others. In this estimate no sum was added for streets or sewers, not yet finished and which Council has ordered, or for any other expenditures which may be contemplated. I stated also, and was only speaking for myself, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, that any effort to make appropriations for other than absolutely necessary purposes, during the present fiscal year, would be opposed by me. I did not deem it necessary to make any further explanation of the necessity for this loan, but after reading some of the things which have been said and published in the newspapers, in reference to this loan, and those which have preceded it, at the request of some of our citizens, I thought it wise to make this statement.

Last year I asked "Are we to continue an endless chain of temporary loans, and is there to be no day of settlement?" I do not claim exemption as a party to these loans, which I will refer to later. A member of Council said in debate a few nights since, "the loan was no reflection on the City's financial conditions," This is true, but it will not continue to be the case, if we continue to borrow, instead of keeping our annual expenses within our annual income, and in a measure observe section 16, of the city charter, which provides,

"That the Council shall cause to be annually made up and entered upon its journal an account of estimate of all sums, which are, or may be, lawfully chargeable on the said city, which ought to be paid within one year. It shall order a city levy, or so much as in its opinion is the amount which may be raised from all licenses and other sources."

Certainly continued and increasing temporary loars are not contemplated in this section, of our charter or rights. Alexandria's financial standing is excellent and has been for many years, if such was not the case, holders of our bonds of 1879, would not have exchanged them for those of 1908, to the amount of $600,300, and $144,700 would never brought $139,180 and accumulated interest. This puts a great obligation upon us, and we should see to it, that these bonds advance in value, rather than depreciate.

The temporary loan of $22,000, made after January 1, 1911, and carried in the receipts for the year ending May 31, 1911, was made necessary for the following purposes; city jail improvements, $10,000, extra appropriation for public schools $6,200 and streets and sewers, $6,000, a total of $22,200. This loan was, of course, carried in the appropriation bill for 1911-12. The estimated receipts and the appropriations for the year 1911-12 were about even. The only provision made for street work was $3,885 ,and northwest sewer $1,890, a total of $5,775, and just here it may be stated, $26,700, or $21,000 in excess of $5,775 was expended on streets and sewers.

The $50,000 loan which has been much discussed, was authorized June 13, 1911, and was made possible for this reason, which I have just stated, that only $5,775 was available to be used on street and sewer work. It was proposed to pave the following streets, four squares on Washington street, Duke to Queen, three squares on Cameron, Royal to Washington, four squares on Alfred street, King to Wilkes and one square Duke street, Royal to Fairfax, twelve squares in all, of which ten have been completed, and while two named have not been, the city has paved two other squares instead, one on Patrick street, Prince to Duke, and one on Fairfax street, Prince to Duke, and in addition two squares, Alfred street Wilkes to Franklin.

It was certainly the idea of the Finance commitee when consenting to and asking the authority of Council to borrow $50,000 that this sum was to cover the cost of these fourteen squares. The cost of these fourteen squares to date, from figures of the City Engineer amount to $48,068.49, and Mr. Dunn estimates at least $3,500 to complete Alfred street work. This make sa total of $51,568.49, expended on new streets laid under the resolution of June 13, 1911, when the loan of $50,000 was authorized the assessments against the $51,568.49, will not equal one-fifth of the cost. The collector has had placed in his hands for all street wor,notes to the amount of $9,003.09 and has collected to January 14, 1913, $3,200,so beyond controversy we have paid out $48,000 on these streets, exclusive of sewer construction.

Aside from this it is unquestioned, that in the appropriation bill for 1912-13, amounting to $148,000, no mention of street and sewer work is found, ans and none of the appropriations in that ordinance have been exhausted, it is appropriate that we should emphasize this fact, that each year when ended, closes the account for that year, and hence the loan was for streets and sewers.

The only safe guide in making up your yearly fiscal affairs is to estimate as best you can, the probable receipts for the coming year, and place against it, what you must set aside for fixed or positive expenditures.

For the present year the committee estimates the receipts at $152,000 (it may be more), which shows a margin of $4,000 only, yet during the seven months, June 1, to December 31, 1912, there is charged (exclusive of cleaning and repairing streets) for sewers $6,715.47, and streets $38,043.08, making a total of $44,758.55. This will not be all, as both street and sewer work will be done by the City Engineer ,under authority already given, and streets cannot be improved before sewer and gas pipes are laid in the ground.

With others I voted for these improvements, and also for the authority to borrow the money to pay for them. There will be no money for much street or sewer work next year unless we continue the policy of beginning each year with a temporary loan, and I for one, do not think this is the best thing to do, I think we should proceed slowly.

Mr. Dunn has given the cost of some new street and sewer work, completed since January 1, 1912, and total receipts from same to date. I will read them but not make them a part of this statement, as I have just referred to them as they apply to streets.

I have been asked why our city bonds have fallen in price? I cannot answer, I am not familiar with the bond market. However, I would say that four per cent is a low rate

TURKS PREPARING NOTE TO POWERS

Said to be Flat Refusal to Give Up Adrianople and Aegean Islands.

GREEKS MAKE ATTACK

Balkan Allies Serve Notice on Turkish Envoys That Armistice is About to Terminate.

Constantinople, Jan. 29.—While it was semi-officially stated that Turkey's answer to the Powers was being drafted, it being a flat refusal to give up Adrianople and the Aegean Islands, the Young Turks today were anxiously awaiting the predicted coming of the fourth army corps, soldiers of the murdered Nazim Pasha, who were said to be on their way from Chatalja to restore to power the Kiamil Pasha government.

The first news of the reported military move on Constantinople came from Vienna and Enver Bey scouted the idea. In an interview he declared that he was on the best of terms with the military officers.

Notwithstanding that, there were persistent rumors that the Nazim Pasha troops were marching on the capital and further disorders were expected.

Athens, Jan. 29.—Anticipating the rupture o fthe armistice, the Greek army, under the personal command of the crown prince Constantine, attacked the Bisani fortifications near Janina all day yesterday, blowing up a powder magazine, and killing many Turkish soldiers. News of the battle reached here today

The fighting lasted from early morning until midnight.

London, Jan. 29.—The Balkan peace delegates today formally served on the Turkish envoys the joint note declaring that the Balkan allies would terminate the armistice immediately and resume the war unless Turkey made some conciliatory move forthwith.

It was assured that the Turks would ask time to consult with Constantinople so that the negotiations if actually broken off cannot be formally ruptured for a week at least, the protocol providing that four days notice be given by either side wishing to terminate the armistice.

Diplomats regarded the whole performance of the Balkan envoys as a game of bluff, as well as the Stoic reticence of the Turks. None of the belligerents can afford to go to war again and the Ambassadors are confident that both Turks and Balkan states are trying to kill as much time as possible, hoping that the powers will intervene and save them.

The Bulgarians with Dr. Daneff at the head of the table gave a "farewell" luncheon to all the Balkan envoys after which M. Grovitch Servian minister in London, accompanied by M. Novakovitch, delivered the note to Rechid Pasha.

The Balkan envoys immediately notified Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, that the note had been delivered, and he called the ambassadors together immediately at the Foreign Office. It was said that the ambassadors would take steps at once to persuade the envoys not to leave London.

A dispatch from Constantinople said that Turkey's answer to the powers would be delivered to the Austria-Hungarian ambassador there tonight or tomorrow and that it would propose an entirely new basis for negotiations.

MERCHANT ASSAULTED.

The proprietor of a store on upper King street was assaulted in his place of business yesterday by a man with whom he had business transactions. The assault caused some excitement in the vicinity at the time. The merchant later swore out a warrant for the man. The case will come up in the Police Court next Tuesday morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Throwing themselves against a cordon of police, a band of more than a hundred of the most militant suffragettes attacked the British Parliament House last night in an attempt to "rush" loyd George. The police had literally to overpower the women before the latter would submit. Sylvia Pankhurst and Mrs. Drummond and a dozen other leaders were arrested. They fought viciously all the way to the station house.

In two bloody fights between deputy sheriffs, armed with revolvers and rifles, and strikers, armed with stones, from the Rankin, Pa., plant of the American Steel and Wire Company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, last night, one man was killed, two fatally wounded and ten seriously injured. All the wounded, with the exception of two deputy sheriffs, were spectators. Not a striker was injured so far as known. A six-months-old child and several women are among the injured.

Sailors from the battleship Nebraska, now in Colon harbor, says a murder was committed aboard the vessel yesterday morning. A cook and a steward, they say, quarreled. The cook used offensive language. The steward plunged a knife into the cook's body. He died in a few minutes. The steward was put in irons.

Milwaukee ministers are in favor of the passage of a state law for the regulation of boxing. A signed statement today by a committee representing the Milwaukee Redemption of Churches reads: "We favor new legislation that will allow boxing matches under supervision nad that shall strictly define the meaning of the term and prohibit prize fighting and brutal slugging matches." The statement was issued following the witnessing by the ministerial committee of Monday night's boxing bouts, about which the commttee said they had no complaint to make.

An appeal to the Mayor of San Francisco that she must have a husband by 1913 or lose a fortune of $30,000 by "Miss Z. X. Radcliffe, Elgin, Ill.," is causing the Postoffice Departmnt no end of worry. Unknown in Elgin the woman failed to call for her mail until the postmaster forwarded letters and pictures from anxious swains numbering 1, 176 to the dead letter office here. One prospective husband sent a picture with himself posed behind a bar in a saloon, another was at a blacksmith's forge while hundreds of robust cowboys were in the race, all sending photographs. In her letter to the mayor of San Francisco "Miss Radcliffe" said she was a good looking woman of twenty-seven summers.

Drugged in Philadelphia January 10 and kidnapped in an unconscious condition across the continent, only to recover sanity on a lonely island off the Lower California coast, has been the harrowing experience of Alexander Chambres, a rich Newton (Pa.) mining man, who has a heavy interest in North Carolina placer fields and in Honduras gold properties. Chambers arrived in San Diego Monday after escaping from the uncharted port where he was abandoned by his abductors to Tia Juana in a sailboat manned by a Mexican fisherman. The sum of $1,500 which he had when he went to Broad street Station in Philadelphia on the day of his disappearance was gone upon his awakening, but a diamond ring and other jewelry, totaling $7,000 in value, were intact, and part of it was pawned at Tia Juana to furnish funds to reach San Diego.

Peter Boore, a young bandit, was shot and fatally wounded by Claraence McSweeney, a police telephone operator in Chicago last night. Boore admitted today having participated with his brother, Albert, in more than 20 holdups on the South Side during the last six weeks. Shortly after making the confession he died. The brothers stopped McSweeney, who is a cripple, as he was returning to his home late at night. McSweeney commenced shooting. Three bullets struck Peter Boore, who returned the fire, one bullet striking McSweeney in the hip, but not seriously wounding him. Albert Boore escaped, but later was captured. He was found in a flat on South Peoria street, with a youth named Eli Ackerman, also believed to belong to a gang of holdup men of which Peter Boore was the chief. In the flat were a number of revolvers and knives.

MISS PANKHURST IS SENT TO JAIL

"General" Refuses to Pay Tribute to Man-made Government.

ON A HUNGER STRIKE.

Thirty Other Suffragettes, Who Refuse to Pay $10 Fines Sentenced to Serve Two Weeks' Term.

London, Jan. 29.—Mrs. "General" Flora Drummond, who with Miss Sylvia Pankhurst led the raid on the office of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George, today was sent to jail for fourteen days. She was offered the alternative of a $10 fine, but scornfully refused to "pay tribute to a man-made government."

The "General" demanded that she be treated as a political prisoner. When arrigned for disorderly conduct and destruction of property, she declared she would go ona hunger strike, even if she starved to death.

The thirty women arraigned in Bow street for window smashing each were sent to prison for a two-weeks term. Like their "general" they were given their choice of $10 fine or jail sentences and they chose imprisonment. With their suit cases, boxes and steamer rugs the suffragettes set out for the jail, declaring that they would not eat or drink while imprisoned.

Woman Kills Husband.

A cable to the New York Sun from Moscow says: Mms. Nadia Putokin killed her husband yesterday in a rapier duel, to which she had formally challenged him. The Putokins were both professors of fencing and their rooms were crowded every day with fashionable people. One of these was an army officer, who aroused the jealousy of M. Putokin. This led the officer to issue a challenge, but Mme. Putokin, declaring that her honor had been insulted, sent seconds to her husband and insisted that he should fight her first. In the actual duel the woman made a vigorous attack. The husband contented himself with parrying her thrusts, but in the third bout his wife's plunge killed him instantly.

Injured in a Runaway.

Mounted on the chestnut thoroughbred gelding of Miss Helen Taft, which became unmanageable and galloped wildly for two miles through Washington's northwestern suburbs, Miss Martha Bowers, daughter of the late Solicitor-General Lloyd W. Bowers, a close personal friends of President Taft, had a narrow escape from death late this afternoon. The horse was instantly killed in collision with a street car, over the top of which Miss Bowers was catapulted, falling to the roadway.

Miss Bowers had been riding through Rock Creek Park with a party which included Miss Helen Taft, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, a surgeon on the Mayflower, and Miss Isabelle Vincent, daughter of President Vincent, of the Universdsity of Minnesota.

Miss Bowers' right arm was broken in two places and she was cut about the head.

Coming down Sixteenth street, Miss Bowers clung desperately to the reins of the maddened gelding. At the foot of the hill an eastbound Capitol Traction car was passing along U street. The horse plunged headlong into the rear platform of the car. The horse was instantly killed, Miss Bowers being hurled over the car.

Dr. A. H. Taylor jumped from his machine, picked up Miss Bowers, and with the aid of two men took her into the operating room of his residence, 1534 U street. She is in a hospital.

MILLER WAS GREAT.

An audience that filled every seat in the Elks' Auditorium last night greatly enjoyed the entertainment presented by Polk Miller,Col.Tom Booker and the quartette of negroes. Mr. Miller's imitations of the old time darkey were inimitable and his work on the banjo and plantation melodies were greeted with rounds of applause. Col. Booker was as excellent and the singing of the negroes good.

TRUSTEES HOLD MEETING.

Discuss Arrangements for New Building of Episcopal High School.

A meeting of the trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, and the Episcopal High School was held yesterday in St. Paul's Church for the purpose of considering some matters in connection with the erection of the new buildings of the Episcopal High School which are now in the course of construction. Among those who attended the meeting were Bishop Gibson, of Virgina, Bshops Randolph and Tucker, of the Southern Diocese, of Virginia, Bishop Gravatt, of West Virginia, Dr. Scollay Moore, of West Virginia, Rev. John Lloyd, of Norfolk, Rev. P. P. Phillips, of Alexandria, Judge Garnett, of Norfolk, Col. Arthur Herbert, Julian T. Burke, Arthur Herbert, jr., Archibald Hoxton, and George Stuart of Alexandria.

The trustees and visitors were entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the Sewing Society of St. Paul's Church.

NO SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE IN SIGHT

Labor Leaders and Manufacturers Strike Snag in Conference.

TERMS ARE REFUSED.

Half of Garment Makers Favor Return to Work—Disturbances Continue Today.

New York, Jan. 29.—Hope of an immediate settlement of the garment workers strike was abandoned today. Leaders of both the Union and the manufacturers association between whom a schedule of terms was arranged after a series of conference have struck a snag. Some of the most important of the manufacturers have refused to abide by the terms of settlement proposed and the vote to be taken by the strikers has been postponed from day to day.

So muddled is the situation that the union leaders today admitted they hardly knew which way to turn. Half the strikers appear to favor the plan to return to work under temporary protocol while the main differences are being arbitrated while the other half seem radically opposed to any compromise in their demands and are determined to prolong the struggle.

Minor disturbances between the strikers and the police continued today. The union leaders were inclined by the treatment of a band of pickets and organizers received from the police yesterday and it was planned to give the police another chance todemonstrate what the strikers claim is their "unjust partiality toward the employers before being brought to this city.

Dora La Follette, daughter of the Wisconsin senator, was in the crowd of organizers and pickets parading yesterday when the police interferred. The police carefully avoided arresting Miss La Follette but took in tow Maude Younger, the San Francisco organizer, and eight girl pickets, all of whom were fined by Magistrate Boslow. Miss La Follette insisted that she was as much a part of the demonstration as Miss Younger and tried her best to get the police to arrest her, but the police, prompted by representatives of the manufacturers in the crowd, refrained.

JOHN M. JOHNSON NAMED

John M. Johnson, of this city, who is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers in the State, has been signally honored by Governor Mann, who has named him as one of the Board of visitors of the Medical College of Virginia which recently entered into an agreement with the University of Virginia College of Medicine with the understanding that the combined institutions should operate under the name of the Medical College of Virginia.

It is declared by those who have followed the events leading up to the merger of these two well known institutions, that the new college, which will result, will be the largest and strongest medical college in the south and will overshadow the celebrated Johns Hopkins Medical College of Baltimore.

Of the personnel of the new board nine names were suggested by the faculty of one institution and nine by the faculty of the other. The remaining member, Eppa Hunton, Jr., was agreed upon by both.

Those named by the Medical College of Virginia were: Dr. T. H. Barnes, Suffolk; Dr. J .N. Barney, Fredericksburg; E. L. Bemiss, Richmond; C. P. Cardwell, Hanover; Dr. J. B. Fisher, Midlothian; Col. John S. Harwood, Richmond; Dr. William L. Harris, Norfolk; Col. J. D. Johnston, Roanoke; Dr. H. S. Myers, Forks of Buffalo.

The names were presented to the Governor by Dr. George Ben Johnston and Dr. Stuart McGuire, representing the Medical College of Virginia and the University College of Medicine.

It is stated that the board will lose no time getting down to work with a view of mapping out plans for the next session. Meanwhile the two institutions will continue to operate separately until the close of their present sessions.

This is practicany the last step in the plans which brought the two institutions together. The president of the larger college is yet to be selected, but it is generally reported that it will be Dr. Stuart McGuire, head of the University College of Medicine father of Dr. Hugh McGuire, of Alexandria. The president will be named by the newly appointed board. Dr. George Ben Johnston is slated for the dean of the new faculty.

"AT THE UNION STATION."

Those wishing to make the personal acquaintance of their old friends, Mutt and Jeff, should meet them at the farce "At the Union Station," at Christ Church Parish Hall, on Friday evening, January 31, at 8 o'clock. They will be sure to be amused by the clever antics of these well known characters. A party of militant suffragettes and Mr. and Mrs. Henpecko are also expected to be present.

SENT ON TO GRAND JURY

Negro, "Who Had Been There Before", Surprised While Stealing Chicken

Elijah Taylor, colored, whose predilection for the feathery tribe had according to the police, gotten him in trouble on other occasions, was in the dock in the Police Court again this morning to answer the charge of invading the premises of Mrs. Johnson, on north Washington street, and attempting to carry off chickens.

Robert Cline and Winter Crupper happened to be in the vicinity at the time, and they captured Taylor and turned him over to the police, after having relieved him of his plunder.

Taylor denoid that he was bent on committing robbery when taken by the two men. Justice Caton imposed a fine of $50 upon him and in addition sentenced him to serve six months in jail but later sent him on to the grand jury.

Jesse Lee, colored, who was suspected of being a confederate of Taylor, was dismissed.

Cecil K. Sherman to Complete His Handsome Cruiser in Alexandria.

A handsome cruiser, which was built in Washington by F. Y. Dawson for Cecil K. Sherman, the well known motor boat enthusiassist, arrived in Alexandria this morning and has been placed at the McAllister wharf where it will be completed under Mr. Sherman's personal direction. The new craft is 36 feet long with an 8 foot beam and will be equipped with 40-horse power Steeling engine. It is a raised deck cruiser and will have sleeping accommodations for six persons. The interior will be equipped with electric lights and toilets. Mr. Sherman expects to put the boat overboard about March 1st.

DRAWS LARGE CROWDS.

Each night the crowds grow larger at the country social now in progress at Odd Fellows Hall under the auspices of the Decatur Club. E. R. Boyer, chairman of the committee, is arranging special features for each night. Tomorrow night an old time cake walk will be the leading feature of the entertainment.

MISS GRAHAM'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Miss Alice M. Graham, who died at an early hour Monday morning, took place this afternoon from her parents' residence, 908 Prince street. The services were conducted by Rev. J. L. Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, and the interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery. The pallbearers were W. S. Grubb, Elmer Thompson, J. W. Monroe, Jno. G. Graham, Alfred Thomson, Harmon Roberts and David Hulfish. Many friends and acquaintances of the decessed attended the funeral.

Willow Furniture in an Exceptionally Large Display

Willow Furniture, made from the highest-grade French willows, has so many virtues that we are not surprised at its popularity. Ours is made entirely by hand, is light weight, strong and durable. It is flexible and readily conforms to any position the body may assume.

The increasing use of willow Furniture makes is necessary for us to be continually enlarging our assortments to be able to meet the demands of our patrons, who come to us, firm in their belief that ours is the best obtainable in every respect. That all are fully satisfied with their selection justifies this belief.

Attention is especially asked to the showing of Easy Chairs, Armchairs, Rockers, Settees, Couches, Tables, Lamps, Stools and many odd and unusual pieces in natural, brown and green colors. It can be stained or enameled any desired shade.

FINAL ARGUMENT.

Governor Will Hear Pleas for Condemned Men Saturday.

Richmond, Jan. 29.—Argument will be had once more before Governor Mann on Saturday morning, at 11 o'clock, in behalf of Floyd and Claude Allen, who are sentenced to death in the electric chair for their part in the Carroll courthouse massacre. It is understood that several attorneys and ministers will appear at that time.

Many communications have recently been received attacking the correctness of allegations made in behalf of the lles during the last proceedngs in the Supreme Court, denials being made in nearly every instance of the statements then set forth.

R. H. Willis, of counsel for the defense in the Allen trials, has prepared a statement in which he reviews the proceedings. He calls attention to the many matters on which the Supreme Court cannot pass, in justification of the appeal to the governor for commutation of sentence.

Richmond School Board's Order Raises Religious Controversy.

Richmond, Jan. 29.—Protests are being made against resolutions passed by the City School Board Monday night directing the principals and teachers to open the daily sessions of the city schools with readings from the Old or New Testament.

Yesterday parents of school children were asking: "What is the Bible?"

Protestants give one answer, Roman Catholics another and Jews still another. It has been suggested that the teachers be directed to read only from the Psalms, as they are acceptable to persons of all faiths and beliefs.

OFFERS HIMSELF FOR SALE.

Despondent Virginian Proposes to Sell Himself Into Bondage.

Woodstock, Va., Jan. 29.—Charles McClanahan, 30 years old, a white man, of Mauretown, a village 4 miles north of Woodstock, has decided, after a life presenting many phases, that he will sell himself into slavery, and in a Baltimore paper on Sunday he inserted the following advertisement:

Wanted—A job; anything; honest have no home; willing to work; good references; will sel mysef into slavery for my keep; I have got to eat; 30 years old; state best price. Address Charles McLanahan, Mauretown, Va. McClanahan is a son of Lawrence McClanahan, a retired farmer in comfortable circumstances. Young McClanahan has worked both on his father's farm and on nearby farms. Tiring of farm life, he went to Terra Alta, W. Va., where he worked for some time in a wooden mill, later returning to his home in Shenandoah county.

Young McClanahan received a grammar school education. He developed a roving disposition in his boyhood days, and has continually gone from one thing and one place to another. He is a young man of good morals, and has the respect of the people who know him.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 29.—According to reports received in this city last night from Charleston, S. C., two men were washed overboard from submarine D-2 Monday night and drowned.

D-2 with three other submarines, convoyed by the gunboat Castine and monitor Tonopah, left Norfolk ten days ago for Cuba. They are reported to have encountred a gale last night below Charleston. The men reported lost are J. Campbell, an electrician, and L. Hurst, a machinists mate.

Commission Man Arrested.

Baltimore, Jan. 29.—On the charge of grand larceny William E. Councils, a commission merchant, was arrested yesterday.

The two detectives went to Councils' place of business about 2 o'clock, and when they told him that he was wanted in Portsmouth, Va., he nearly collapsed.

"I'm not guilty of the charge," he declared. He was shown a telegram from the chief of police of Portsmouth asking for his arrest.

"I'm wiling to go there for trial, because there is a misunderstanding." Councils has been in Baltimore for some time.

PREDESTINATION TRUE.

Question Causes Trouble in Ranks of Baptists in Virginia.

Froeling, Va., Jan. 29.—There is a "holy warfare" being waged between the two factions of the "mountain" Baptists of this section. Be it remembered that some years ago there arose a difference in the ranks of the regular Primitive Baptist church over the question of predestination one wing believing that man can do nothing to affect his own salvation; that is wholly a matter of greace (favor) from the Creator the other that man can and must do something in order to be saved.

The predestinarians were in the ascendancy in the annual association of the year when the wrangle had reached the stage for the crisis, and so strong was the opposition of the "antis" to the church doctrine that they withdrew and organized themselves into a new church, dropping the term "Regular", and calling themselves "Primitive Baptists."

After the division of the old and the organization of the new church, and by way of reproach the old church people referred to the others as "soft shells," and to even up scores the term "hard shell" was flung back at them by the new church people. And by these names they are still distinguished.

Through the fifteen years of their separate existence the prejudice engendered by the wrangle has become more and more intensified.They vilify each other in terms that might well be spared before respectable audiences.

The supreme effort in the sermons of each seems to be to prove that the other is wrong. The clergy of the opposing factions will not hear each other "hold forth," and it is seldom that the laity will attend each other's "meetin's."

Altercations between lay members have recently been known to be only narrowly averted. Strictly speaking to an outsider it looks as if the prime object of each church is to expose each other, rather than to labor in the salvation of souls.

One almost believes that among the members one of the implied tenets is thate, if need be, heads must be broken for the "doctrine" of the church.

REVENUE RAIDS.

Pretended They Would Play Allen Trick on Officers.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 29.—Reports have been received here of additional revenue raids in Carroll county, which have been made since the arrest of Byrd Marion, who is suspected of having aided in operating a moonshine distillery near his home not far from Hillsville.

Revenue officers are reported to have raided the plant of Talbert Brothers in the Fancy Gap section last week. They destroyed 2,000 gallons of beer and arrested Noah and Flody Talbert, who were taken to Hillsville, where they each released on $500 bond for their appearance at the next term of the federal court in Abingdon.

It is reported that the Talbert distillery was in full operation when the revenue men swooped down upon the plant and destroyed it, "Mat." Talbert being one of the alleged moonshiners who escaped.

Willis Talbert, another brother, attempted the Floyd Allen act, when he approached the officers and said: "I will be——if I will let my brothers go to jail with revenue officers."

J. P. Hurt, a deputy revenue collector, warned Willis that the officers were well armed and that it would not be well for him to interfere with them in the performance of their duties. It is beieved there would have been blood shed if Mr. Hurt had not acted quickly in assuring Willis that it would be a fight to the finish in case he attempted to rescue the two brothers under arrest from the revenue officers.

It was several minutes before Willis could be persuaded to allow his brothers to go with the revenue men. It is not known whether any charge will be brought against him when his brothers are placed on trial in Abingdon.

Numerous other places were visited an dthe revenue men only found signs of operations the stills having been removed. Deputy Hurt is in Big Stone Gay today where a number of cases will be considered.

TO RENEW FIGHT.

Roanoke Alumni Leads in Effort to Prevent Eggleston's Election.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 29.—The renewed hope and vigor that seems to have been injected into the aspirations of J. D. Eggleston, former superintendent of Public Instruction, for president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, since his appointment in the United States Bureau of Education, will meet a counter check in this city Saturday, February 1, when it is expected that representatives of the alumni association of the institution from all parts of the country will be here to protest against Mr. Eggleston.

A meeting has been called by A. T. Eskridge, Jr., president of the General Alumni Association upon authority of the Executive Committee and at the request of the Roaonke alumni. Vigorous opposition to Mr.Eggleston developed among the alumni of Roanoke when his name was first mentioned in connection with the presidency of V. P. I. When he received his appointment under United States Bureau of Education, it was thought that the chances for the V. P. I. presidency were at an end. Later the announcement that his appointment was but temporary, served to renew the effort being made in his behalf.

Representatives from all of the alumni associations will be asked to attend the meetnig on Saturday and there is no uncertainty but that resolutions in opposition to Mr. Eggleston will be placed before the meeting for adoption.

VIRGINIA PRODUCTS.

33,545000 Dozen Eggs Were Produced In The Year.

Strawberries are by far the most important of the small fruits raised in Virginia according to statistices announced today by the census office.

The value of the strawberry crop in 1909 was $626,649; the production was 11,343,000 quarts, both production and price being lower than they were in 1899.

Blackberries, raspberries and other varieties run next in order to strawberries in importance among the small fruits.

Dairy statistics are incomplete. There were, however, on April 15, 1909, 326,000 cows and 439,000 sheep of shearing age. On the census date Virginia had 6,100,000 chickens.

The production of eggs reported was 33,545,000 dozens valued at $6,577,000. There were many chickens and many more eggs not reported to the census-takers.

Chicken raising increased nearly 300 per cent in the State in the ten years between the twelfth and thirteenth censuses.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A germ cure for all cutaneous diseases can be obtained about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommendating this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

MR. FIELD'S EXHIBIT OF CITY'S FINANCES.

As had been promised several weeks ago, Alderman Henry K. Field, chairman of the [illegible] of the City Council, last night read an interesting paper on the citys' receipts and disbursements during the present fiscal year. The paper will be found in full in the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen and it should be read with attention by every person interested in the city. Mr. Field, while being as eager for public improvements as the most modern progressive, realizes the fact that we should take the hint of the old farmer when told he should run his stump extractor at a more lively gait. His reply is proverbial, "It might break the machine."

The exhibit sets forth what everybody knew who has watched public procedures during the past two years—that we are spending considerably more money than we are collecting—and should the services of the check wheel be dispensed with much longer, the city may find itself in an embarrassing condition.

After having read Mr. Field's statement, we unhesitatingly announce our affirmation of all he says. But there is no cause for apprehension, that the work that has been mapped out will be brought to a sudden standstill, but that the city should move slowly and conservatively must be admitted by all sober minded people.

Should any person take the trouble to scan over the proceedings of the City Council during the past two years he or she will see that the money required to carry out measures which have been introduced at each meeting which will require thousands of dollars. The revenues are approximately estimated to meet the city's actual cost of operation with a certain margin for new work and extraordinary or unlooked for expenses, and when under such circumstances, a continuous stream of ordinances calling for costly improvements is introduced, it is apparent not only will the city be forced to borrow twenty or thirty thousand dollars yearly, but that this amount will, ere many years, be quadrupled.

Mr. Field, it will be seen, had no intention of casting a frost over the spirit of public improvements. He merely desired to show us where we stand, and this he has done in an able manner.

The city's bonds, while not soaring, are regarded as one of the safest investments. It is his object to keep them in good company.

GOING OUT WITH A BAD SMELL.

During the past few weeks General Daniel E. Sickles, who has been prominently before the country in various ways since the year 1859, when he shot and killed Philip Barton Key in Washington for carrying on an intrigue with his wife, has fallen into hard lines while in the sere and yellow leaf. He has entered the shadows of the penitentiary for misappropriating public funds. Sickles had recently figured as a man up to his ears in debt, from which predicament he was extricated by his wife who, for reasons best known to herself, does not live with him.

Mrs. Longstreet, wife of General Longstreet is reported to be manifesting considerable commiseration for the aged general, and it is suggested among those in the southern country that a subscription be started looking to the relief of the victim of his own acts.

While inclined to gaze with sympathy upon any man who goes wrong, we fail to see how Sickles can in any way appeal to the sympathies of the great majority of southern people. At the close of the civil war while at the head of bayonet rule in certain places of the then unreconstructed portions of the southern country, his alleged arrogance made him as unpopular as Benjamin F. Butler after his sway over the city of New Orleans.

There may be instances where the Jackass kicks the dead lion, but the moral of the fable would not apply in this case, as, so far as history shows, Sickles' military career will not place him in the Alexander or Napoleonic constellation.

Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler and Mrs. Herbert Oliver entertained most delightfully yesterday afternoon at Five Hundred in honor of their house guest, Mrs. William Lanahan Unduch, who left last evening for her home in Baltimore, to the disappointment of her friends who expected her visit to be of longer duration. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and plants. Mrs. Uhler was becomingly robed in a handsomely fashioned gown of gray crepe de-chine. Mrs. Machen most graciously served punch to the ladies before they were seated for the game. The pretty prizes won by Mrs. Richard Gibson and Miss Cora Cochran, were a full-leafed fern growing from an attractive basket and a crocheted work bag. The refreshment coursets were served in most attractive way. Those present were Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mrs. Henry Cooper, Mrs. D. Moxley Low, Mrs. Isaac Gregg, Mrs. Wilmer Waller, Mrs. Anderson Sommers, Miss Katie Uhler, Miss Mary Glenn Uhler, Mrs. Eggborn, Miss Cora Cochran, Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mrs. William Bryant, Mrs. Harry Beverly, Mrs. Frank Slaymaker, Mrs. Richard Acton, Miss Frances Danenhower Miss Hackett, and Mrs. Paul Waters, of Washington.

of interest at this time. Investors are seeking a higher rate, and it is quite likely, other cities are passing through this temporary slump in values. I cannot for a moment believe that the temporary loans of the last three years had any appreciable effect on the cash value of our bonds.

No one is more optimistic than myself as to the bright future for Alexandria. I know what has been accomplished under careful and conservative management, and if continued on these lines, we will accomplish much each year. To do this, the path of safety is to live within our yearly income, and those now charged with the responsibility, and their successors, should become pehsistent opponents of unnecessary municipal extravagance and all will be well.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Council had a comparatively short and very harmonious session last night.

When President Brumback called the members to order there were thirteen present, and the election of Mr. John Leadbeater raised the number to fourteen.

Messers. Smith and Graham were absent.

After the clerk had finished reading the minutes, Mr. Lambert moved that Council go into the election of a member to fill the vacancy in the delegation from the First ward and when this was agreed to he placed in nomination Mr. John Leadbeater. There were no other nominations and when the roll was called it was found that Mr. Leadbeater's election was unanimous.

Mr. Lambert then suggested that Council recess until Mr. Leadbeater could be brought to the Council Chamber and sworn in. This was agreed to and after a short recess Mr. Leadbeater was presented sworn in and took his seat.

The Aldermen sent in a resolution directing the street committee to regain possession of the lot at the north west corner of Pitt and Princess streets owned by the city.

The resolution provided that any persons who had built on the property without legal right be required to move.

This was the only matter that caused any discussion; the Aldermen had passed the resolution and Mr. Marshall thought the reference should be to the committees on Finance and Public Property and Council agreed with him and non-concurred in the action of the Aldermen and referred it to all three committees.

Later Mr. Ogden appeared from the Aldermen and asked a conference committee as they were unable to agree with Council in this reference. The President aoppointed Messrs. Williams, Lambert and Leadbeater.

The committee soon reported, recommending that council recede from its action and concur with the Aldermen as the resolution would not affect any person who had lease rights in the property.

Council then agreed to this and concurred with the Aldermen.

An ordinance appropriating $1,000 for the purchase of granite curb was passed.

A number of other matters were passed without discussion and will be found in the official proceedings.

BURIAL PLACE OF DR. CRAICK—AN HISTORIC INQUIRY.

To the Editor of Alexandria Gazette

I am anxious to ascertain the burial place of Dr. James Craick and his wife, Mariam Ewell Craick.

James Craick was named in Washington's will as his "old and intimate friend." He was surgeon of the Virginia batallion, which in 1775 it marched from Alexandria to Ft. Duquesne, with General Braddock. At the end of the Revolutionary War, he was surgeon General of the American Army. He lived in Alexandria after the Revolution and was Washington's family physician and was with him when he died at Mount Vernon. He resided in his old age at Vacluse, an estate near Fairfax Theological Seminary and probably died there. Colonel Arthur Herbert informs me there are no graves at Vacluse, so that I presume that he and his wife were buried in some public cemetery at Alexandria or Washington. They both died about 1814. I think they were married at Bel Air, Prince William county, the family seat of the Ewell family, Nov. 13, 1760. I have collected some interesting historical matter concerning them and am anxious to complete it by the addition indicated. I ask any one having the desired information to write me.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

"Diplomaitc negotiations" between Senate and House conferees on the Dillingham-Burnett immigration bill were resumed today. Whether the bill nuulifies the deportation features is in dispute. Fearful that further "tinkering" with the bill may cause a revival of enthusiasm among its opponents and imperil its enactment, the House is standing solid for enactment in its present form. Senator Lodge caused the bill to be sent to conference again in the Senate, but the House last night refused to change the bill. Today's conference will cause a third vote in both branches of Congress before the bill is put up to the President.

Formal notice was served on the Amercan Telephone & Telegraph Co., by the Interstate Commerce Commission today that it must answer to complaints of independent companies that it is a "trust" which is seeking unlawfully to monopolize the telephone and telegraph business.

The Workmen's Compensation Act passed the Senate, and declared by Prest. Gompers of A. F. of L. "the most just and equitable bill ever proposed by any country," will be favorably reported to the House for final enactment within the next week. Chairman Clayton of the Judiciary Committee so stated today. He said that there would be fe wchanges in the senate bill.

The measure, which provides compensation for every class of worker injured while employed by a corporation doing an interstate business, is being read line by line by the committee. It has been in its hands for a week, and the members have been meeting daily from 10 o'clock until 5.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Constantinople correspondent of the London Times, after examining the charges and counterchrges of massacres, arrives at the conclusion that Moslems and Christians are equally blamable. He estimates that in the whole of European Turkey 20,000 Moslem and 15,000 Christian non-combatants have been killed during the war, and considers that Europe would be better employed in relieving the suffering of the survivors than in attempting to fix responsibility for the massacres.

A partisan tug of war in the Senate yesterday, behind the closed doors of an executive session, involving the question of the confirmation of President Taft's nominations was ended abruptly just before 7 o'clock when one Senator recalled that the Congressional reception at the White House was to occur last night. The Senate had been in continuous executive session for more than six hours. Closing the doors for the avowed purpose of taking up nominations, the Senate consumed more than six hours' time without actually considering a single nomination. More than 2,000 unconfirmed nominations, sent to the Senate by President Taft since the election are pending.

---

As frost to the bud, and blight to the blossom, even such is self interest to friendship, for confidence cannot dwell where selfishness is porter at the gate. Just so with footwear, you want confidence in the seller and you want it confirmed by the wear of the article. Experience has proven that Marshall keeps on hand the best, and does not recommend them beyond what the wear proves.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity, I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Sworn affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
